WHERE RADIUM ABOUNDS.

The radium mines of Joachimetal, in Austria, recently supplied the Vienna Academy of Science with ten tons of uranium ore, and this has yielded a quarter of a million dollars worth of radium, which will be used for research.
The mines are being turned in to a radium cure resort. A local laboratory for producing radium salts has been established, and the springs are serving as medicinal baths.

JURY IS SECURED.

Everything Ready to Proceed to Try W.
A. Dell for Murder of Addie Roper.

BELLINGHAM, Sept. 16.—The jury in the Dell murder trial was secured at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon and court adjourned immediately after.

The names of the men who will try William Allen Dell for the murder of Miss Addie Roper at Blaine on the night of January 13, are:

W. A. Scheneck, shingle weaver, Harvey Canfield, farmer; A. H. Pierce, clerk; W. L. McCoombs, farmer; E. W. Swanson, merchant; W. J. Van Houghton, street car motorman; James Clayton, farmer; W. F. Gwynn, theatrical manager; P. W. Pierce, collector; J. N. Nygren, farmer.

At noon it was thought by the attorneys that at least two more days would be required to get a jury.

Raymond Lang, formerly of Blaine, and one of the first men to arrive at the home of the late Addie Roper when the alarm of fire was sounded, will arrive here tonight in custody of Deputy Sheriff Trimble, as a witness against Dell.

At one time Lang was held under suspicion of being implicated in the robbery and murder of Miss Roper, but he gave such a straightforward account of himself that he was freed from suspicion but held as a witness.

Lang was a hanger-on at the Reception saloon, which is diagonally across the street from the home of Miss Roper.
As he was one of the first to detect the odor of oil and smoke it was natural to cast suspicion toward him. Subsequent events proved that Lang was a deserter from the United States army and shortly after his release he was turned over to the army officers, court martialled, and has been in confinement since. He will be held in the custody of the sheriff until released by the court.

DOOR IN PERSIA OPEN.

Russia and England Define Sphere of Influence in Shah's Country.

MARIENBAD, Bohemia, Sept. 16.—
The Russian foreign minister, M.
Isolsky, who recently signed the Anglo-Russian agreement in behalf of Russia, was received in audience by King Edward here today. The minister, who was presented by Sir Edward Goschen, the British ambassador to Austria-Hungary, remained to take luncheon with the King.

After luncheon, M. Isolsky was closeted with the King for half an hour, and when the minister left he carried a case containing the grand cross of the Victorian Order which the King had conferred upon him. King Edward also conferred the cross of commander of the Victorian Order on Count Phalen, a member of the council of the empire, who accompanied M. Isolsky.

LONDON, Sept. 16.—The conference at Marienbad between the Russian foreign minister, M. Isolsky, and King Edward was arranged for the purpose of discussing the recently concluded Anglo-Russian agreement, the text of which will be published as soon as the ratifications have been exchanged. The meeting gives the greatest satisfaction here placing as it does the final seal on better relations between Great Britain and Russia, for which the officials here have been working for a long time and which King Edward ardently desires.

The details of the understanding arrived at with respect to the Near and Far eastward questions remain an official secret, but it is understood that Great Britain, while she has secured all that the specialists deemed necessary in Persia, has made concessions there in order to obtain advantages in Afghanistan which were regarded essential to safeguard India. Among the concession thus made was one enlarging the fact that while Russia and Great Britain will not interfere with the commercial interest of the other, the door is left wide open for the merchants of other powers.

Health in the Canal Zone.

The high wages paid make it a mighty temptation to our young artisans to join the force of skilled workmen needed to construct the Panama Canal. Many are restrained however by the fear of fevers and malaria. It is the knowing ones—those who have used Electric Bitters, who go there without this fear, well knowing they are safe from malar-ious influence with Electric Bitters on hand. Cures blood poison too, biliousness, weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney troubles. Guaranteed by Chas. Rogers, druggist, 50c.

Lost and Found.

Lost, between 9:30 p. m., yesterday and noon today, a bilious attack, with nausea and sick headache. This loss was occasioned by finding at Chas. Rogers' drug store a box of Dr. King's New Life Pills. Guaranteed for biliousness, malaria and jaundice. 25c.
